

Art Commission. It was the consensus of the Commission not to move artwork for short term display.

An update was given about the current conditions of Town Hall, the expected timeline for reinstallation, an estimate to re-install the collection there, and possible changes in locations for paintings. The conservation and reinstallation of the Moffett panels was also discussed.

Also the Chair presented a model brochure featuring Town Hall artwork and the library artwork for possible production. It was determined that any funds remaining in the current year budget would be earmarked for such a project, and that the chairman would proceed with a mockup design.

The Commission asked that the minutes reflect a thank you to Stephen Borkowski for his expert managing of the safekeeping of the work during the Town Hall renovation. Chairman asked if there was other business to be addressed, hearing none:

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting at 3:50 p.m.
