Enforcement

Code Compliance

Discussion about the approval of the Liquor License for the Drag Competition at the last meeting. Det. Alves states that the license should not have been granted given that detail officers were not in place for the event.

Chair agrees that license should not have been granted.

Det. Alves: Event ended up not drawing many attendees so it was a non-issue but for future events security needs to be lined up before event. Can't rush those decisions. We were more than generous.
