

PROVINCETOWN HISTORICAL COMMISSION – March 1, 2017

Attending: Stephen Borkowski, Susan Avellar, Julia Perry-Alt., Anika Costa. Polly Burnell and Deborah Minsky-Excused Absence, Martin Risteen-Absent

Call to Order at 5:30PM

Agenda:

1 Public Comments-none

2 Minutes: Move to accept the January 25, 2017 meeting minutes by J Perry, 2nd S. Borkowski, Vote: 4 0 0

3 Building Provincetown update: Sales are slow; perhaps the book can be sold at Year-rounders.

4 Town Hall Signage: Jeff Simonean is willing to attend a meeting to present and discuss the signage he is creating.

5 Local Comprehensive Plan: unavailable

6 Auditorium Seating: There is an article in the April Town Meeting Warrant regarding the replacing of the auditorium seating. Moved by S. Borkowski that the Historic Commission affirm the Commission's commitment to retain, preserve and restore the auditorium chairs. 2nd S. Avellar Vote: 4 0 0

7 Charter Commission Report-Julia Perry: J. Perry will be presenting a draft copy of the Charter Commission's revisions at the annual Town Meeting. The Charter Commission is looking to see if some of the Town committees can be combined. Only state required committees will be listed in the Charter.

8 Walking Tour Map: S. Borkowski will continue to talk with David Dunlap.

9 Community Preservation Grant Recommendations: Moved by J. Perry to support the request of $50,000 for the implementation of the Bas Relief Monument and Bas Relief Park Conservation Plan. 2nd S. Borkowski, Vote: 4 0 0 Moved by S. Avellar not to support the request of $100,000 for the exterior restoration of 46 Bradford St. 2nd S. Borkowski, Vote: 3 0 1 Moved by J. Perry to support the request for the implementation of the stone conservation of priority stones at the Alden St. Cemetery 2nd S. Borkowski, Vote: 4 0 0

10 MHC letter re: Building Renovation at FAWC: The Historic Commission will issue no further comment as the HDC has already approved the renovations to the FAWC buildings.

11 New Business: LED lights are installed in the auditorium. The Town Hall walls are now in need of repainting. May the archived furniture/cabinets be used in the Town Hall restrooms.

Respectfully Submitted: Susan Avellar