Chapter 91 Issues

Rex handed out some information prepared by Mark LaTour, Asst. Town Manager that listed the Concerns of the Chapter 91 Amnesty Committee with the Town Responses and the Consensus of the Chapter 91 Working Group. He announced that there would be a Property Owners Workshop on November 7th, 2002 at 9:30 AM. Rex went over the items one-by-one and asked members and the others attending this meeting for their opinions. Chapter 91 will be tabled until the next meeting of the Harbor Committee that will be after the Property Owners Workshop.

Appointment of Community Development Director

A memo from Keith Bergman, Town Manager, was handed out stating the appointment of Mr. Jon Gilmore of Weyland, MA as the new Community Development Director. It also gave Mr. Gilmore's credentials.

EPA Sanitary Survey Report – Ryder Street Beach

A memo, from Patricia Pajaron, with an attached copy of the EPA Sanitary Survey Report for Ryder Street Beach, was handed out to the Committee members. This memo and report was also sent to the Board of Health Members; Conservation Committee; Keith Bergman, Town Manager; Mark LaTour, Asst. Town Manager/Acting DCD Director; and Val Carrano, Director of Human Services.

Town Landing Signs-

Rex handed out Americorp brochures describing their projects and announced the completion of the installations earlier today.

Harbor Regulations

Rex handed out a copy of the Harbor Regulations with a summary sheet giving the proposed amendments to them that were not accepted by the Board of Selectmen last year. He suggested that all Harbor Committee members review the Regulations and then go over them at the next meeting when all members are present. The committee will start with Chapter 2 and 3, leaving Chapter 1 (Macmillan Pier) until after consultation with the Pier Corp. Board. A short discussion took place regarding some of the Regulations.
