Health Inspector's Report

The Water Task force reports that the Woods Hole Study did find evidence of human fecal matter at 3 sites in the harbor. More research is needed to determine the source.

The Health Inspector is working with Americorp members putting up signs at public and semi-public beaches in accordance with new State Regulations.

The Health Inspector is working with the Tourism Office on developing a Code Red List.

There is no news on the dead animals that were recently tested for rabies.

Board Members' Statements

Mark publicly thanked Betsy Melamed of Bayside Betsey's for recently hosting SafeServ classes at her restaurant here in town. There were 3 classes and 79 people attended. This was a great convenience to the community as the nearest class otherwise is held in Hyannis.
