

Fresh, uncut fruits and veggies for anyone, donated by everyone.

All are welcome—no eligibility criteria.

Come get or drop off fresh, uncut fruits and veggies any time between these hours:

Mondays: 10–4:30

Fridays: 10–4:30

Tuesdays: 10–7:30

Saturdays: 1–4:30

Wednesdays: 10–7:30

Sundays: 1–4:30

Thursdays: 10–7:30

Crop Swap is located at the Provincetown Public Library, 356 Commercial Street. Look for the fridge on the 1st floor (next to the elevator).

<< Want to donate to Crop Swap? See reverse side.

BRING YOUR OWN BAG!
OPEN YEAR ROUND

A collaborative project of the Provincetown Health Department, the Provincetown Public Library, and the Soup Kitchen in Provincetown (SKIP).

OPEN YEAR ROUND

BRING YOUR OWN BAG!

At the Provincetown Public Library
356 Commercial Street, Provincetown

Donations of fresh, completely intact, uncut fruits and veggies are welcome!

To volunteer, or to arrange for a regular pick-up of donations, please contact:

Morgan Clark, Health Director
mclark@provincetown-ma.gov
508-487-7020

The Crop Swap is Provincetown's Produce Swap Shop, full of fresh fruits and veggies for anyone, donated by everyone.

All are welcome—no eligibility criteria.

Directions & hours of operation on reverse side >>